New Champion
CH. Kan' Sing's Yarlung Tsangpo "Tashi"

Owned by Debbie Lindsay, Tashi completed the requirements for his championship at the Orlando Cluster in December, 2018 with a 3 and 4 point major, owner handled throughout, at 13 months. Along the way Tashi received 3 majors and 3 BOS in Puppy Sweepstakes. As a move up the following day, competing at the Orange Blossom Tibetan Spaniel Club, he earned an Award of Merit! A great accomplishment for a young black and tan tibbie. Tashi is the first champion for his Dam: Best in Show winning, Specialty BIS, #1 Tibetan Spaniel all systems GCHG CH Kan Sing's PO-BA-RI At Arundina. We can't wait to see what Tashi's future holds after a well deserved break from the ring to "grow up".

The Tibetan Spaniel, "Tibbie" booth won a group 4 with great representatives of the breed at Westminster. Debbie Lindsay spent the day with Ryder and other great friends in the breed

Thanks,

This is why we have puppy contracts. When "her person" suddenly passes and the family no longer wants "the dog" after 7yrs, the purposeful breeder gets the call because the family knew it was written in the contract, first right of refusal. When can I drop off the dog? You meet them days later, the week of her 9th birthday. Welcome home "Anna" AKC Ptd Wllslands Gracious Princess CGC. She was 9 on Sept 28, 2018. She walked into the house, like she never left. All is good here. Thank you Jenn Pepe for this great photo of Anna taken soon after she was back home.
